USI Università della Svizzera italiana

Fact Sheet optional Italian language courses

Switzerland has four national languages: German is the most widely spoken (63,5%), followed by French (22,5%), Italian (8,1%) and Romansh, an ancient Latin-based language spoken by just 0.5 per cent of the population.

Italian is the third language in Switzerland and 350.000 inhabitants of Canton Ticino uses it as its main language. Being USI Università della Svizzera italiana the only University of Italian language and culture in the Swiss Academia, since 2006 it is particularly committed in the organization of Italian language courses, both intensive and semestral. Knowledge of the Italian language in Canton Ticino can in fact provide many opportunities both in personal and professional lives. Not only it can make it easier to get along in shops and restaurants and to communicate with colleagues or organizations but also it increases job opportunities.

The Italian language programme is designed for USI students and USI professionals at all levels who want to develop and improve their practical Italian skills. More specifically, throughout each semester USI Università della Svizzera italiana offers an Italian language study programme organized in twelve modules: four intensive courses of two weeks each prior to the semester start at Absolute Beginner (A1), Beginner (A1-A2), Elementary (A2), and Intermediate level (B1) and nine semestral courses from CEFR level A1 until CEFR level C1.

Each year about 600 USI students enroll in the Italian language courses and 400 obtain the certificate of attendance.

WHY STUDY ITALIAN

- There is an increase in need for communicative skills in a second or third language.
- According to the European Commission, Italian is the fourth most commonly used language in EU.
- Multilingualism is a central issue in Switzerland.
- Italian is a minority language in Switzerland. Only 8,1% of the Swiss populations speaks Italian.
- Switzerland and canton Ticino has long been a magnet for the tourism industry.

- Italy is the country with the highest number of UNESCO sites in the world and a very popular destination for travelers.
- Many literary authors known worldwide are Italian writers.
- The 1980s saw a celebration in the Swiss architecture of the movement Ticino Tendenza. It represents a unique symbiosis of rationalism, modernism, awareness of history and reference to landscape.

PARTICIPANTS

All non Italian-speaking students, researchers, assistants, professors and staff studying or working at Università della Svizzera italiana are most welcome to take the free of charge Italian language courses offered every semester. As class size is an important factor in language learning it is on the other hand not possible to admit family members, friends or students studying in other higher Institutions.

LECTURERS

USI value good teaching. All lecturers have a long teaching experience and are highly motivated to make the learning experience as pleasant as possible favoring friendly and stimulating contacts with all participants.

COURSES

All courses are designed accordingly to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. All four skills are taught (reading, writing, listening and speaking) with particular emphasis on grammar in the lower levels A1-B2 and particular emphasis on oral communication and reading authentic texts in the higher levels B2-C1.

INTENSIVE COURSES

ORGANIZATION

Autumn semester: an Absolute Beginner (A1) Italian intensive course is offered three weeks prior to the semester start and a Beginner (A1-A2), an Elementary (A2) and a Intermediate (B1) level intensive course two weeks prior to the semester start.

Spring Semester: four intensive courses are offered two weeks prior to the semester start at Absolute (A1), Beginner (A1-A2), Elementary (A2) and Intermediate level (B1).

COURSE LOAD INTENSIVE COURSES

Tuition involves six hours per day taught over a period of two weeks from Monday to Friday from 08:30 until 12:00 and 13:30 until 15:00 (in total 60 hours). The course includes doing homework and self-study every evening after class.

The intensive courses encourage to get fully involved in the language. The morning class focus on grammar and writing whereas the afternoon class focus on improving listening and speaking skills, expanding vocabulary and developing confidence.

FILM VIEWING INTENSIVE COURSES

Film is an important part of any country's culture. An Italian film viewing with English subtitles is organized twice a year.

CULTURE

Culture is a major and inseparable component of knowing a language: a city tour and the visit of an exhibition are organized every semester.

SEMESTRAL COURSES

ORGANIZATION

General Italian courses:

The courses develop grammatical accuracy and builds vocabulary with a communicative teaching method incorporating reading, writing, listening and speaking skills.

The courses are divided into seven levels: Absolute Beginner (introductory Italian A1), Beginners 1 (A1-A2), Elementary 2 (A2), Intermediate 1 (B1), Intermediate 2 (B1-B2), Upper-Intermediate (B2) and Advanced (B2-C1).

Spoken interaction courses:

To develop all Italian skills students may combine a general Italian course with spoken interaction lessons at two levels, the basic spoken interaction course A2/B1 (for students taking the Beginners 2 or the Intermediate 1 classes) or the Upper Intermediate spoken interaction course B2/C1 (for higher level learners taking the Intermediate 2, the Upper Intermediate or the advanced classes). The courses improve fluency and concentrate on speaking and listening skills.

To encourage participants to make rapid progress through active class participation we do our best to guarantee small group sizes especially in the higher levels B2 and C1.

COURSE LOAD SEMESTRAL COURSES

Our aim is to provide participants with the opportunity to acquire as much knowledge of the language as possible in a corresponding amount of time. Tuition involves two hours per week taught over a period of thirteen or fourteen weeks (in total 26 or 28 hours per semester depending from the course). Additionally, all courses requires at least two hours of individual study each week.

SELF STUDY

INDIVIDUAL STUDY

Each week students will be offered self-study exercises based on the areas of grammar which the class has focused on. Depending from the teacher and level, participants will also be encouraged to read short chapters of continuous reading, produce pieces of writing or prepare presentations. The student would be expected to perform at least two hours of homework outside of class every week.

ENTRANCE TEST

All higher level courses require knowledge of material covered in other courses. A definitive decision about admission can consequently be taken only after the entrance test organized the first day. The lecturer will address participants who chose the wrong level to the correct one after the first lesson.

EXEMPTION

All students who passed the exam of the lower level intensive course held before the start of the semester are exempted and are automatically admitted in the higher level semestral course. All other students have to take the entrance test even after successful completion of the final exam of the previous semestral course.

LATE ARRIVAL

Since the entrance test is compulsory, students have to take the course starting from the first week. Exceptionally a new examination date can be scheduled for those students who experience delays in their arrival plans due to unexpected problems.

The latest possible access in the classes is however the 1st of October in Autumn Semesters and 1st of March in Spring Semesters.

FINAL EVALUATION TEST

Regular examinations, midterm and final, are held each semester. The results are strictly informative (passing or failing) and give the chance to the teaching staff to recommend following courses.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

- A regular and active attendance is required once admitted. In order to benefit fully from the course, a 100% attendance is recommended.
- Participation in classroom activities is the basis for all course work together with independent learning and homework. For this reason, though three absences during the semester are excusable, not more than three consecutive absences are accepted. It is the participant's responsibility to always notify in advance any absence via email to the teacher and ask about assignments and homework.
- For the good quality of the courses, any student wishing to drop the class once admitted should contact the teacher as soon as possible.

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

All students who attended at least the 75% of the course and took the final test obtain a Certificate of Attendance. The attendance certificate will state the name of the participant and the level of the course but not the grade.

ECTS POINTS AND FINAL COURSE GRADE

Italian language courses do not count towards a degree at Università della Svizzera italiana. Only Swiss-European Mobility Programme (SEMP), Swiss Mobility and International Exchange students are entitled to receive ECTS points after having passed the final test and attended at least the 75% of the course. At USI all examinations on official courses are graded on the 1 to 10 scale. For language courses the evaluation is however expressed by a binary system (Pass or Fail).

COURSE REGISTRATION

Participants should use the self-assessment Grid of the European Language Portfolio before registration. Central to the European Language Portfolio are the six levels of communicative proficiency defined in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. The levels are summarised for the five skills of listening, reading, spoken interaction, spoken production and writing. Based upon the result, students can choose the most appropriate course level. Self-assessment Grid: www.usi.ch/self-assessment-grid-159526.pdf

The application is online. Registration begins in May (for Autumn semesters) and late November (for Spring semesters). For the good organization of the programme, students should register only if seriously interested.

Online registration: www.italiancourse.usi.ch

CONFIRMATION OF ENROLMENT

The online application enrolls participants automatically. A detailed informative email confirming the enrolment will however be sent few days before the beginning of each course. In case of unexpected withdrawal, it is the responsibility of the student to inform the administration by writing to italiancourses@usi.ch as soon as possible.

COURSE BOOK

The course material is not covered by the University and must be purchased by the student before the start of the course. A confirmation message with the details will be sent to the registrant prior to the course start.

Extra materials are chosen by the teacher depending on the needs of the class.

GRADED READERS

Graded readers or 'readers' are books that have had the language level simplified to help second language learners read them. The language is graded for vocabulary, complexity of grammar structures and also by the number of words.

A collection of graded readers from level A1 until level B2 can be borrowed in the USI Library.

SUGGESTED GRAMMAR BOOKS

Fabia Gatti, Stella Peyronel; Grammatica in contesto. Strutture e temi di italiano per stranieri. Loescher editore, 2006.

Mina Ricci, Via della grammatica A1-B2, Edilingua edizioni

COURSE FEEDBACK

We value your opinion. All participants have the opportunity to give general feedback on the courses either by filling out an evaluation form in class at the end of the semester or by speaking to the teacher.

OFFICIAL ITALIAN LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY PLIDA

Università della Svizzera italiana also offers an official Italian language proficiency test twice a year (in April and October) in cooperation with Società Dante Alighieri in Italy. The PLIDA Certificate attests competence in Italian as a foreign language according to a scale of six levels. The levels advance from A1 to C2 in progression of difficulty and correspond to the levels established by the Council of Europe.
